To whom it may concern,

We are pleased to write a letter on behalf of Charles Viana III, Campaign Director for the ONE Campaign in the Diocese of Sacramento.

As members of Our Divine Savior Catholic Church Capital ONE Diocesan fund raising campaign, we found Charles to be responsive and responsible. He was most professional in his dress, manners and deportment. During our frequent meetings, he was respectful, patient, positive and well organized. His follow-through on questions and concerns was excellent.

When Charles spoke at our large group meetings, he spoke with knowledge, ease and conviction, answering questions and clarifying issues. He made a special effort to have a diocesan representative at the parish large group meetings.

In short, he did his job well and we appreciated and benefitted from his guidance and support.

Respectfully,

Bill

To Whom It May Concern,

In behalf of Saints Peter & Paul Church in Rocklin, California I would strongly recommend Charles Viana III, that acted in the capacity of Campaign Director for our Parish in the ONE Campaign in behalf of Guidance In Giving and the Diocese of Sacramento.

Due to the nature of the campaign and the financial challenge that was given our parish we found Charles to be readily accessible and very helpful in developing our parish campaign strategy and Campaign Case Statement. We were never wanting for information requested and his input and direction and his openness to our ideas helped us develop a program that was tailored to our specific parish.

When we had ideas about strategy I would run it by him and he took them to the campaign in our behalf and he always got back to us in a timely manner; I had no doubt at any time that he gave us his very best effort.

When Charles was on site for parish receptions he was a very positive representation for the campaign in his manner of presentation and interaction with our parishioners. He kept the receptions moving and showed great respect for the time taken by our parishioners to attend the informational meetings. In several cases, I am specifically aware of, he met after the receptions with parishioners that had technical questions and they later came to me and said that they really appreciated the time he took and the clarity to answer their question, that they felt no pressure and found him to be most personable. In a couple of instances where parishioners raised personal concerns during the open meeting that were somewhat negative, Charles handled the question with great diplomacy; as a result I have to say all of our receptions went very well and proved to be a positive and informative experience for everyone.

I would, as Parish Campaign Chair, in behalf of all the individual coordinators, say that they enjoyed working with Charles with all phases of our campaign at SS Peter & Paul Church.

To summarize, we couldn't have been more pleased.

Respectfully,

Allen Bestmann

Dear Michael Cusack:

I am the pastor of St. Dominic's Church in Benicia, CA. Over the past six months I have been working with Dan Cleary on the ONE Campaign for the Diocese of Sacramento. Before being appointed pastor, I was the Director of Development for my province, so I am very familiar with fundraising on both the front and back ends.

Your organization is blessed to have Dan Cleary as your representative and employee. From the very first phone call till our goodbye lunch, Dan has been a professional in every sense of the word. Dan communicated the campaign plan and strategy clearly, and walked with my staff and me every step of the way. As you can image, every pastor's worst nightmare is a diocesan capital campaign but Dan made it almost painless. Additionally, if Dan said he was going to get me information or follow up with the diocese on an issue, he completed the task as soon as possible. Dan is a very good "face-man" and my parishioners responded to him positively. While I think he would make a wonderful priest, Dan seems to have found his calling in life. Again, your organization is blessed to have Dan Cleary as your representative and employee.

Michael, because of my experience with Dan Cleary I would use your company in the future and, if asked, would highly recommend your company to another diocese or parish.

God bless,

Subject: Jose Felix

To Whom It May Concern:

Jose Felix worked with our parish and staff on the One Campaign for the Diocese of Sacramento.

We had instant rapport with Felix. He presented himself as being strong in his faith, knowledgeable about fund-raising, very personable and willing to help us in any way possible. We can honestly say we easily established a friendship with him.

He organized the presentations, had material available for our parishioners and was able to answer questions they had. He was always available by 'phone, text or e-mail to respond to any questions we had and would either send or personally deliver any supplies we needed. His follow-through is exemplary.

Although fund-raising can sometimes be a difficult thing to do, Felix's organization, mild manner and knowledge made it more pleasant. Should we ever have to have a fund-raising campaign, we would definitely want him as our Campaign Director.

Please contact me should you have any questions concerning this professional young man.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
